Terrence:

Where are we with this? Do you consent to the stip and order that I sent you last Friday?

If I do not hear back from you today, I will be forced to file a motion. In that case, this email constitutes my request for concurrence.

Please advise.

Pursuant to our conversation, I have attached a new version that should take your concerns into account. Please advise whether this is acceptable.

I would be willing to consent to a similar stip and order allowing for Ms. Reeser's continued deposition post-discovery cutoff, but since Ms. Hood's deposition was scheduled for today, I want to finalize Ms. Hood's stip and order by the end of the day.

I forwarded a copy to you earlier today. I have not heard anything back from you.

Please advise whether you concur.

If I do not hear back from you by 10am tomorrow morning, I will file a motion with the Court.

Thanks.
